Forwarding for disposal a memorial from Mr. A. Venkatesiah & others asking that legislation may be undertaken to prohibit the Slaughter of Cows in the State.
Submd for orders with reference.

In this connection attention is invited to the submission note at S. C. 31 in which the whole question has been examined and it was decided that no action may be taken particularly as the present moment is inopportune for undertaking legislation of the kind.

There was an interpellation in this matter in June 1935 in the H.A (Hag P at page 92 of the Proceedings) and it was stated that no action was taken as it was not considered necessary or expedient to undertake legislation
